

COOKING

with Nancy

By Nancy Gould

This is going to be a very busy week for our family...there are track meets, baseball and softball games, and Lorelei's Dance Showcase Recital, and last but not least, Olivia Gould and Gentry Lawson will be receiving their First Communion on Sunday at Noon.

I have been searching for an easy dessert, that I can make ahead of time, for a family gathering on Sunday afternoon. I think I found just what I was looking for and I am sure I will make this many times during the warm Summer months.

SUMMER ANGEL TREAT

- 1 cup confectioners' sugar
- 1 (8 oz) cream cheese, softened
- 1 (8 oz) Cool Whip, thawed
- 5 cups (7 oz) angel food cake, cubed
- 1 can pie filling, cherry, blueberry, peach, etc.

In a large bowl, beat cream cheese and powdered sugar until fluffy. Gently fold in Cool Whip. Cube and fold in the angel food cake. Put into an 11 x 7 dish. Spread pie filling over top. Cover and chill 2-3 hours. Serves 8.

HELPFUL HINTS: Buy an already made angel food cake at Kroger (on shelves across from bakery and deli.)

My son-in-law Mike loves anything with cherries in it, so I am going to use cherry pie filling the first time I make this.

Since we are going to have a very busy day on Sunday, I will make this the night before and keep it refrigerated until ready to serve.

Food for Thought: We can change the world inside our own houses. Take the gift of this moment and make something beautiful of it. Few worthwhile experiences just happen; memories are made on purpose. (Gloria Gaither)
