

My daughter Angie gave me a cookbook a few weeks ago, that featured 4 ingredient recipes, and it has some of the best, easiest recipes I have ever tried. The one I am going to share with you today was a great hit with my family, and takes just about 5 minutes to prepare. Try this - you'll like it.

TAMALES SUPREME

10 Art's Tamales, wrappers removed and thawed

1 - 15 oz can chili, without beans

1 cup chopped onions

2 cups grated cheddar cheese - mexican blend

Place thawed tamales in greased casserole dish, top with chili and sprinkle with onions and cheese. Bake 30 minutes at 350. Serves 4.

HELPFUL HINTS: A fresh green salad is the perfect accompaniment to this meal.
Have sour cream and salsa on hand to serve with this dish.

I want to thank everyone who contributed to our Bake Sale for Rescue 33 this past weekend. Your generosity never ceases to amaze me! Thanks to you, we made almost $300.00, and believe me, that is a wonderful feat, considering we had some competition this year, and the weather did not cooperate one bit. But, we gave it our best, and I was so happy to have so many different donations this year - like Cheese Balls, Pickled Okra, Bread and Butter Pickles, and the most wonderful Snack Mix, as well as the traditional Bake Sale items, such as cookies, pies, cakes, brownies, etc. To all of you who helped in any way, my heartfelt Thanks. Also, a special Thanks to my Co-Chairman, Sherry Weis. "I couldn't do it without you, Sherry!"
